

Look Ahead - residential and care provision for vulnerable people - various projects

Artists - Esther Rolinson, Laura Ford, Hamish, Lothar Gotz

Client - look ahead housing and care

Look Ahead is a housing association providing accommodation and care for vulnerable people. Their arts programme included exhibitions, participation and performance as well as integrated artist commissions linked to new build or refurbishment.

Esther Rolinson created an external light work for a new building to house young people coming out of care.

Laura Ford with landscape architect Liz Fremont designed beautiful and playful outdoor space for a building to house young families.

Lothar Gotz designed a new colour scheme for the common areas of a building for people with mental health issues.

Hazel Colquhoun worked closely with Look Ahead to develop the programme of commissions and managed the selection and appointment of the artists.
